State Meeting

Our State meeting was March 31, 2007. Fifty-two people were in attendance at the meeting held at the Herkimer Fairgrounds. You will find the meeting minutes posted on our web site (<http://www.newyorkgoodsam.com>).

Some highlights of the discussion are:

Generator Use -

Those with generator stacks can park in general parking. It can be run ONLY 7-8am, 12-1pm, and 8-9pm.

Day Passes for $5.00 will be available at the gate— Those with day passes will wear a badge/sticker identifying them as guests for the day.

Friends - The Samboree is open to the public. Friends also do not have to own a rig to camp with us; tents are welcome!

We are on the Web!

Yes, we have a state Good Sam website. On this website you will find Chapter and State information, minutes of meetings, past newsletters, Vendor information, and Registration forms of New York Good Sam Events. Also, you will find up-to-date information about our “Salute to the Military: Past and Present” 2007 Samboree.

NEW On the website, you will find a Fireside Chat page where information about fellow Good Sam members as well as Chapter News will be found.

If you have information to be posted to the website or if you are having problems accessing the website, email Tammy McDougal at steveandtammymcd@earthlink.net.

Chapter House Keeping...

Suffix Sams has disbanded due to lack of membership.

Cindy Dunbar is no longer President of NEATAHWANTA SAMS—she has moved to Illinois. Judy Hall is the acting Secretary at this time.

First Timer's Booth will be set up by the State. Chapters be assigned 1 hour time slots to man the booth. Look for schedule on the Bulletin Board at the Samboree.

Booths must be manned at the assigned time. BUT the chapters may sell raffle tickets at any time. Booths may be set up as soon as the space has been prepared by Staff.

If chapters want to participate in the Booth Contest, they will need to obtain a Participation Ribbon. Only booths with the Participation Ribbon will be judged.

Please remember your By-Laws state that your chapter has to attend the three state meetings a year.
